FUNDRAISING IDEAS FOR YOUR SECONDARY SCHOOL

Think about your class, what they enjoy and the skills and resources you have available. We've pulled together a selection of ideas below to get your minds working. Don't be afraid to ask everyone what they would like to do.

Off the grid

Estimate £200 - £400

Unplug for 24 hours and see how students cope without electricity. That means no TV, no phones, no laptops, no lights and no social media. Find out more at shelterbox.org/grid

Wacky Hair

Estimate £150 - £300

Haircuts and head shaves are another easy fundraising event. The wackier the better. It's still worth getting it done properly by asking a local hairdresser if they will help out in return for some publicity in school and locally. If you're lucky they might even fix it after you're done.

Non-uniform or fancy-dress day

Estimate £75 - £500

Swap ties and blazers for jeans or fancy dress to raise vital funds — and ask everyone who takes part to make a donation. A simple but popular event.

Sleepover

Estimate £150 - £1,000

Take over your library, classroom or sports hall and arrange an overnight stay in school. Get everyone to bring what they would for a camping trip, including their own food and drink, and arrange games, stories and a film before bedtime. Charge a set amount per participant.

T-Shirts

Estimate £60 - £200

Either hold a competition to design a T-shirt that can be printed and then sold, or, invite children to draw on previously bought T-shirts with fabric pens and sell the results to their parents. Either way a good afternoon of activity and almost guaranteed funds.

This is Katie, who held a pizza party with her friends and raised an amazing £50 for families around the world.
