

SPONSORED EVENTS AT YOUR ROTARY CLUB

Getting fellow Rotarians involved to complete challenges is a great way to raise funds. We've pulled together a selection of ideas to get you thinking.

Running or cycling

Estimate £590 - £1180

(1 to 2 boxes)

Set a course distance and ask as many people as possible to take part in a sponsored fun run or cycle. Encourage families and groups of friends to enter and run together or form a relay team to share the distance.

Hiking or walking

Estimate £700 - £1,400

(100 - 200 high thermal blankets)

This is a similar event to arrange but at a slower pace. Choose a scenic route and allow walkers to bring their dogs along too.

Swimming Estimate £1,180 - £1,770

(2 to 3 boxes)

Challenge individuals or teams to swim a particular distance. You could organise a relay or a fancy dress dip in your local pool, or if you're by the sea why not get as many people as you can to take the plunge in the middle of winter.

Dare Night Estimate £235 - £705

(5 to 15 water filters)

After a dinner get people to sponsor each other to complete outlandish dares; to make the challenges more enticing clarify how much will be donated upon completion. Note these can be completed over the night or over the course of the following month.

Camp out Estimate £5900+

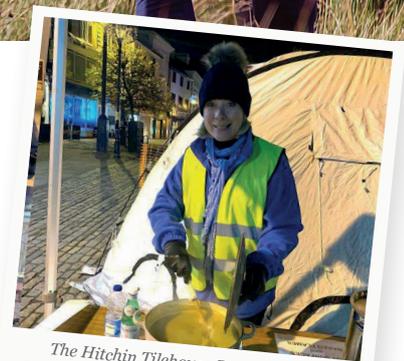

(10 or more ShelterBoxes)

Organise an outdoor sleepover, either in a ShelterBox tent or you could make your own shelters. Ask everyone to bring food and drink and organise activities, stories or even a quiz before bedtime and get sponsored for either the amount of time you're there or the number of people who join.

Abseil/Skydive Estimate £940+

(20 or more water filters)

If you have any daredevils in your midst then a high-adrenalin activity like an abseil or skydive is a popular way to encourage sponsors to dip into their pockets.

The Hitchin Tilehouse Rotary Club held a sleep out event. The club served hot soup, and slept in a ShelterBox tent for the night

Charlie walked 38 miles along the Norfolk coast with a ShelterBox strapped to her back. She raised an amazing £2,200

Richard after running his first ever half marathon. He completed the race in just 2 hours and 10 minutes and raised £1,775
